The largest island in the archipelago, Middle Caicos is home of the famous Bambarra Beach, the Middle Caicos Caves and one of the world's best bone fishing locations, as well as, a spectacular reef for snorkelling, all competing for the delight of visitors to the island. Although recording a small population presently, it is a sort after destination for vacationers and locals to come to enjoy the various festivals and memorable amenities. This vacant 4.1 acre parcel offers an excellent investment opportunity to for a private residence, several vacation homes or commercial use. It is located less than a mile from the famous Deep Creek in the tranquil, lush tropical settlement of Lorimers. This is an amazing opportunity to own a piece of Paradise and bask in the majesty of the island. The Eric Arthur Airport is now reopened, but the alternative for accessing Lorimers is a breathtaking 25 minute ferry ride from Providenciales and a drive through the various settlements to enjoy the beauty of the islands. The island has paved roads, electricity and internet. At this competitive price, your paradise definitely awaits you!
