Cactus house sits on a nearly three quarter acre seafront lot with stunning unobstructed views of the Atlantic ocean, facing east the sunrises are epic. Meticulously renovated in 2025, this 3 bedroom / 2 full bath villa, with 2 car garage, has been professionally designed and all permits obtained. It features an oversized private, heated plunge pool perfect for cooling down while floating in the breeze. Imagine seeing the whales in the spring and the light show at night being open to the stars. Inside you'll find modern luxury touches await you from the gourmet kitchen to the beautiful four piece ensuite and three piece main bath. The primary king sized suite has direct pool and washroom access while the two other bedrooms also sport king sized beds and share the main bath which also leads directly to the pool. The kitchen features all new stainless steel appliances, built-in downdraft stove, built-in counter depth fridge freezer with ice maker, dishwasher and built-in microwave below counter all allowing for an open european style concept. Beautiful handmade Italian tile dresses the space to enforce the majestic views in ocean greens. All the gadgets and cookware needed are included and stocked within the custom cabinetry. A reverse osmosis system is built into the kitchen for fresh drinking water on demand.
