Perched on the peaceful ridge of Banana Patch in Long Bay Hills, The View at Cherubs is a striking three-level villa offering nearly 6,000 sq. ft. of refined living space with sweeping, unobstructed views over the Caicos Banks, Long Bay Beach, and the Grace Bay area. Elevated for privacy and designed to showcase the island's natural beauty, this 5-bedroom, 5.5-bathroom residence blends clean modern design with effortless comfort. The villa's entry opens to the second level, where two ensuite guest bedrooms, an open-concept living area, a sleek chef's kitchen, powder room, and dedicated laundry are all thoughtfully arranged to frame the panoramic views. Expansive glass doors flood the space with natural light, capturing the island's ever-changing seascape from morning to dusk. On the lower level, two additional bedrooms share space with a fully equipped home gym, private office, and an entertainment lounge—offering direct walk-out access to the expansive pool deck. Here, a sparkling pool, sun loungers, and a covered barbecue area create the perfect setting for relaxed days and unforgettable evenings under the stars. The penthouse level is a private retreat, home to the primary suite with a spa-style bathroom, walk-in closet, and access to a rooftop terrace that truly defines island living. A shaded pergola, portable Jacuzzi, and a fully equipped outdoor kitchen make it ideal for entertaining while enjoying panoramic views across the surrounding resorts of South Bank, Shore Club, and Grace Bay. With floor-to-ceiling views at nearly every turn, The View at Cherubs is not just a name—it's a way of life. Whether you're seeking a tranquil escape or a refined space to gather and host, this villa offers a rare blend of perspective, privacy, and polished island living.
