Solid meticulously maintained 2 bedroom salt raker style cottage on Salt Cay, the hidden jewel of the Caribbean. Thick walls constructed of stone and cement with a tall rafter ceiling and new roof, this turnkey property offers sweeping, unobstructed views of the entire island from the full-length, covered, front patio. Traditional stone walls surround the .25 acre manicured grounds, keeping the roaming donkeys at bay. Desirably located in the South District, originally established in the early 19th C from settlers of the salt industry, this 2 bedroom mini villa is only minutes walk to the crystal clear, turquoise west coast ocean or South Creek, a sheltered estuary ideal for kayaking, birdwatching, photography and bonefishing. Fabulous opportunity to own a piece of Caribbean paradise renowned for its pristine, world class diving and upclose winter humpback whale watching. Salt Cay, sometimes referred to as 'the island time forgot' is the smallest of the inhabited islands in the Turks and Caicos.
