A distinguished expression of contemporary island living, this refined one-bedroom residence at Saphora offers sophistication, comfort, and efficiency in the heart of Grace Bay. Comprising 44 upscale residences within a refined mixed-use setting, Saphora integrates elevated residential design with curated lifestyle amenities, including a signature fine-dining restaurant, a stylish café and bistro, a resort-style pool, a fitness centre, and six boutique retail spaces, all moments from Grace Bay's most coveted attractions. Spanning approximately 1,340 square feet, the one-bedroom layout is both generous and intelligently arranged, creating a seamless balance between open-concept living spaces and a private, well-defined bedroom retreat. The thoughtfully designed floor plan maximises livability, natural light, and spatial flow, delivering a residence that feels notably more expansive than typical one-bedroom offerings. Architectural precision and high-calibre finishes define the interiors, delivering a residence of enduring quality and contemporary appeal. Strong proportions and compelling price-per-square-foot positioning further distinguish this offering within central Grace Bay's competitive landscape. Professional property management is available, featuring a 75/25 owner revenue split, providing operational ease and income efficiency. For buyers seeking refined design, practicality, and a prime Grace Bay address, this one-bedroom residence represents a rare and compelling acquisition.
