Located in the heart of Grace Bay's residential enclave on Hope Street, this standout property sits among a neighborhood known for its luxury villa developments and strong income potential from both long- and short-term rentals. Built in 1995, "Beacon of Hope" is a two-level residence featuring a spacious four-bedroom main home with two balconies on the upper floor, complemented by two well-appointed two-bedroom rental units on the ground level—each with its own private terrace. The grounds also offer ample space to add a swimming pool and BBQ area, enhancing its lifestyle and rental appeal. Competitively priced compared to surrounding properties, this offering truly represents one big, beautiful opportunity.
