St. Somewhere is on .57 acres of spectacular oceanfront on the private west coast of historic Salt Cay. The newly built, solid concrete workshop / studio is massive to house all your water toys and boats. Above is an airy, light filled, open concept, 1 bedroom with a wraparound deck offering 360-degree views of the entire island and the breathtaking turquoise Caribbean Ocean. Watch the whales, dolphins and year-round, mind-blowing sunsets from the entertainment size deck / bar and gazebo stretching along the pristine seashore. Setback from the road is a meticulously maintained 2-bedroom bungalow with rich wood cathedral ceilings, large covered, party patio and outdoor barbecue cooking area. This property is ideal for friends and family to all enjoy their private living space while cost sharing or live in with vacay rental income. Salt Cay, sometimes referred to as 'the island time forgot' is the smallest of the inhabited islands in the Turks and Caicos.
